

Black Health Network

Membership Fact Sheet
2022

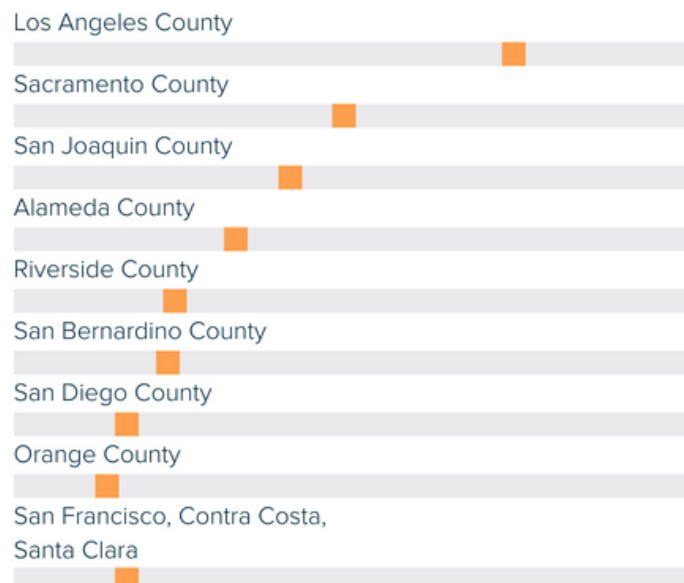

CBHN Incorporated: 1983
BHN Established: 2021
Members: 305
Company Type: Nonprofit
Focus: Health Equity

Mission & Vision

BHN is a network of ambassadors creating a healthy Black California. This virtual community of like-minded health equity leaders, professionals, policy makers, advocates, individuals, and partners work to ensure that Black Californians live a life free from violence, racism, and health inequities. The network aims to inspire and empower members to advance health equity for Black Californians.

Top Locations by County

Membership Levels

Basic
Free

Student
$15 Annually

Individual
$50 Annually

Organization

Based on the Nonprofit's Annual Operating Budget

Corporate Sustainer
1% of Annual Revenue

What BHN Offers

Black Health Network members interact with other members virtually, exchange information and collaborate on common interests/goals, develop professional or social contacts, and leverage tools and resources to help to you achieve impact in your mission to improve the health and well-being of Black Californians. Here are a few of our offerings:

- Advocacy Training
- Networking Opportunities
- Capacity Building
- Leadership Development
- And more!

CBHN Programs

Black Health Agenda

Statewide plan to address health disparities

Health Equity Forum

Speaker series featuring public health and health equity experts

Healthcare Coverage

Providing access to healthcare coverage for the uninsured

Health4Life

Education series to improve health literacy

Advocacy and Policy

Initiatives that aim to improve access to quality, equitable healthcare

The Black Health Network

A community of a CBOs, individuals and professionals driving a Black health movement

Organizational Type

162 Nonprofits

90 Healthcare Organizations

22 Government Entities

31 Corporations

Join Now!

Members Top Areas of Focus

Black Maternal and Infant Health

Hospitals/Clinics

Mental Health

Health Access / Outreach

THE CAMPAIGN FOR BLACK
HEALTH
EQUITY
HEALTH, HOPE, HUMANITY